ADMINISTRATION

Over the period of thirty years during which I have watched Wa-Hi operate, I have never been more pleased than I am at the present time. The average student is sincere and cooperative. The faculty is capable and loyal, and the administration encourages genuine growth in citizenship and scholarship. I firmly believe that there is no better high school in the entire Northwest.

The life of a schoolman offers satisfactions found in no other occupation. As long as life means anything, as long as learning and progress mean anything, just so long will teachers take pride in their work. They have a part in the world's most important process, the growth of youth.

W. A. LACEY

The record this book contains is one of which Wa-Hi students, individually and collectively, may well be proud. Notable achievements have been made both in extra-curricular activities as well as in your curricular work. Particularly noticeable are the recent developments in student government.

To the seniors, may I say that these achievements and this progress will enable you to better meet the challenges which will be yours as graduates of the class of 1951. It is my sincere wish that in the years to come you will look back with fond memories to the high school years you are now completing, but more important that you experience greater achievements in meeting these challenges as you take your places in your home, in your community, and in your country.

ARTHUR D. JONES

I wish to extend congratulations to the staff members of the annual for the excellent job in producing the 1951 "Royal Blue." You have been energetic and resourceful, have learned lessons in cooperation and teamwork, and combined your best efforts toward a common goal. Production of the annual is one of Wa-Hi's finest activities.

Portrayal of school life gives us all a better perspective of our fine school. During the year all of us, faculty and students alike, are too involved within our own sphere to fully appreciate or understand the wide scope of the school in its subjects and activities.

An excellent record has been made this year by the entire student body. I hope you are all proud to have been a part of Wa-Hi in 1950-1951.

Congratulations and best wishes, seniors. I wish you success in the future.

W. G. LEDBETTER

I know of no better way to evaluate the many accomplishments of our school year 1950-51 than through the Royal Blue. What more pleasure can one receive for such a small investment? Treasure this volume; its value increases with age.

It is gratifying to see the progress made in student government and all student activities.

I am proud to have had the association with this year's senior class. They have shown outstanding ability in leadership and good solid thinking. During these times, our country is in need of these fine qualities in people.

A. S. B. Government

Wa-Hi had a very successful year under the guidance of its officers, who were: president, Jerry Still; vice-president, Bill Gohlman; secretary, Pat Winn; and treasurer, Pete Welk.

To promote a stronger representative government, Jerry Still chose as commissioners: Arden Forrey, to enforce the laws as chief justice; Marion Fry, to see that the Shuffle Shop ran smoothly; Dale Steindorf, to maintain order in the halls; Zoe Zachary, to see that the students were kept entertained by assemblies; Richard Blake, to keep the buildings and grounds in good order; Homer Milbrath, to give us enough fire drills; Helen McAuslan, as the president of the newly formed club council, to keep the clubs in order; Muriel Klein, to keep Wa-Hi's relationship with other schools running smoothly; Danny Sutherland, to keep the stage in good shape; and Jo Ann Buck, to see that the events of Wa-Hi were publicized. Serving as honorary members were Gene LePage and Sonia Angell, Boys' and Girls' Federation presidents, respectively; Joan Sherwood, Joan Strange, Ann Jeglin, and Janet Franklin, editors of the Journal during first and second semesters; and June Cochran, yell queen.

Commissioners

The cabinet, besides carrying on the duties of its separate offices, worked as a group in sponsoring the Homecoming parade and dance, and also a cabinet assembly.

The Legislative Assembly of 1950-1951, headed by Bill Gohlman, had a successful year. They started the hall monitor system, made changes in the A.S.B. Constitution and By-laws, set up the Club Council as the governing group of school service clubs, set up the new two student court system, approved the A. S. B. budget, and passed numerous other bills to aid the smoother function of A. S. B. government.

The Student Court was changed greatly this year. A higher Student Court was set up to try the more important cases and Chief Justice Arden Forrey pursued a policy of not giving demerits as punishment for offenses. The guilty offenders were given work in the halls, on the grounds, or in the cafeteria.

All in all, the A. S. B. government functioned very smoothly, because of the cooperation of all of the students, and all of the Student Body officers thank the students without whose cooperation nothing could have been accomplished.

Girls' Federation

The 1950-51 school year began its activities under the leadership of President Sonia Angell, Vice President Suzanne Skubinna, Secretary Evelyn Miller; and Treasurer Jacqueline Dockter. Our Dean of Girls, Mrs. Paul Houghton, afforded valuable guidance.

The first activity was the appointment of the chairman, and her assistant, of the newly created Scrap Book and Bulletin Board Department. The duties of this department are to relieve the secretary of her responsibility for the bulletin board and to keep a more vivid picture of Girls' Federation from year to year.

In co-operation with the Boys' Federation, we sponsored a get-acquainted "Freshman Frolic" to welcome all transfers and freshmen. In order to meet the girls who had transferred to Wa-Hi, the Girls' Cabinet was hostess to all transfer girls at a party held in October. Games were played, entertainment provided, refreshments served, and discussion of Girls' Federation activities.

Each year the sophomore girls sponsor the annual Girls' Federation costume party. This year, under the chairmanship of Shari Fain, the party was known as "Mother Goose Gam-bols." Prizes were awarded, and to climax the evening Sally Maxon was crowned "Friendship Girl" of 1950 and 1951.

At the beginning of the second semester many girls were found rushing around in order to present the play "Oh Say Can You Sing!" The all-girl cast was ably directed by Mary Davis, and was given in the February assembly for the faculty and the girls.

At the same time, seven of the eight cabinet heads chose junior girls to be their assistants. Just after the appointment of the assistants, another Transfer Party was given to greet new transfer girls. Shortly after this party Joan Benefiel and Joy Lutton, co-chairmen for the Senior Tea, were engrossed in working with their many committees to make this year's tea a huge success. The Senior Tea was held the last of April. April 13 and 14 were the dates of the Tri-State Conference, which was held in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Representing Wa-Hi were Harriet Pierce and Sonia Angell, seniors, and Sally Maxon and Sharlene Williams, juniors. At that time the scrap-book was entered in competition with scrap-books from all over the tri-state area.

Boys' Federation

Under the able supervision of Mr. Ledbetter, dean of boys, the Boys' Federation turned out another successful year. The first frolic of the year, the Freshman Frolic, was organized by the girls' and boys' federations to welcome the Freshmen and new transfers to Wa-Hi. Later on in the spring, a guided tour through Wa-Hi was provided by the same group for the eighth graders of Walla Walla. Refreshments were also provided for the future students of Wa-Hi.

An assembly was held for the boys of Wa-Hi once a month. Timely subjects such as interviews with the local draft board, the Army, the Navy, Coast Guard, etc., and entertainment like a volley ball game between the faculty and homeroom all-stars, films about driving safety, skiing at Sun Valley, and a program by the Department of Game which consisted of a film and a lecture, were presented in these assemblies.

Special letterheads and envelopes were purchased this year and letters were sent to boys who were absent from school. The purpose of these letters was to keep them abreast of school activities and give them encouragement.

Carrying out a successful intramural program is one of the chief duties of the Boys' Federation. This task was given this year to Bruce McKay. It was his duty to look after the equipment, plan the schedule of games to be played, make public the game to be played and their results, and determine the team which had produced the most points. A trophy was awarded to the best team at the end of the year.

The Boys' Federation also acted as a big brother to transfers and visitors by showing them around the school and grounds.

The adviser for the Boys' Federation this year, as in the past, was Mr. Ledbetter. During the year he gave a helping hand to incoming transfers by arranging their schedules and getting them accustomed to the surroundings. Helping students with their subject schedules and troubles was one of his major tasks. He was also the originator of the idea of sending letters to boys who were absent from school.

SENIORS

The class of '51 marches to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," remembering as so many have before us the four wonderful years that led up to this glorious moment. The past holds bright memories for all, and the future, fond hopes and dreams.

During the first semester, John Clark presided over the senior class with Merle Goble as Vice-President and LeRoy Deranleau as Secretary-Treasurer. John Clark was re-elected as president for the second semester, with Homer Milbrath as Vice-President and Muriel Klein, Secretary-Treasurer.

Reginald Green leads the class with an unbelievable four-point grade average. This year there are two Salutatorians, Bill Gohlman and Gerald Jackson. Although Gerald Jackson had the higher grade average, Bill Gohlman gave the Salutatory speech as Gerald, a transfer from Nampa, Idaho, just entered Wa-Hi the first quarter of his senior year.

The first semester grades came out and 61 of the 241 seniors were on the Honor Roll, 9 of which were straight "A" students in the National Honor Society. National Honor Society was efficiently led by Gene LePage the first semester, with Helen McAuslan taking over for the second semester.

Girls' Federation is headed by Sonia Angell. The senior representatives for Girls' Council are Harriet Rader and LaRae Toman. Margaret Buerstatte was elected as the senior member of Girls' Cabinet. Gene LePage leads the Boys' Federation. Merle Goble, Lester West, Don Heimbigner, Ken Darr, and Dick Yeager are the senior representatives on Boys' Cabinet.

Arden Forrey served ably as Chief Justice of Student Court. First semester, Frances Whiteman was the senior justice. Arnold Knopf served on the second semester higher court and Winfield Beach on the lower court.

The Senior play, "Mother Was a Freshman," starring Zoe Zachary, JoAnn Buck, and Richard Downing was a big success.

There were many outstanding seniors in the choir. Justine Sires, John Cummings, Joyce Barker, Bobby Gorden, Dixie Allison were the senior members of the Double Mixed Quartet. Dixie Allison, John Cummings, June Cochran, and Russell Hyslop had leads in the operetta "Pirates of Penzance" which was held April 19th and 20th.

Also many seniors were prominent in athletics with many boys on the football team and with Wayne Heimbigner making all-state. There were four seniors on the basketball team and also many were active in baseball and track.

Seniors Sneaks are always a great deal of fun, and this year's was no exception.

JUNIORS

OFFICERS

McInturff, Lange, Turner, Page
Maxon

The class of '52 has been active throughout its years at Wa-Hi and this year proved to be no exception. The Junior Class, under the helpful guidance of Mrs. Esary and Mr. Stoehr, elected class officers for the first half of the year as follows: Bob McInturff, President; Dick Turner, Vice President, and Sally Maxon, Secretary-Treasurer. June Frank and Elsie Drumheller were Girls' Council Representatives while Joan Hanson represented the Junior Class on Girls' Cabinet. For the second half of the year Ned Lange, Orville Kiehn, and David Page took over the duties of president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Of course no Junior year would be complete without the annual Junior Prom. The theme for this year's Junior Prom was "Stairway to the Stars." Phyllis Ackerman was crowned queen of the Junior Prom with five princesses who were Nancygayl Welch, Bernice Bruhjell, Fay Cram, Sondra Eastman, and Joan Benefiel. Ruthie McLean was also honored by being chosen the Junior Princess for the Hi-Y Varsity Ball.

Another event of the year which shows off the talent of the class of '52 is the Junior Assembly, which was well received by the students.

An operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," was put on by the Music and Dramatic Departments. The Juniors were not to be left out of this, for June Frank, Sally Maxon, Wanda Gibbs, Louis Clayson, Dean Lodmell, and Louis Roedel played leading roles. We should also mention the many Juniors in the chorus. Other examples of talented Juniors were found in the Girls' Federation play with Virginia Hobkirk, Dianna Bartelt, Joan Henline, and Janice McCowan; and in "Men Are Like Streetcars" with Janice McCowan and Jim Kerr. In the Music Department Juniors were members in the Mixed Ensemble, Junior-Senior Triple-Trio and the Boys' Quartette.

The Juniors have taken an active part in the Government of Wa-Hi. Joan Benefiel was elected Secretary of Legislative Assembly both semesters. The Junior Justices for the first semester Student Court were Frances Kajita and Richard Proctor. During the second semester on the upper court were Dianne Moody and Milton Watson. On the lower court were Sharlene Williams and Louis Roedel.

This year was the year for the semi-annual Northwest Music Conference. Many Juniors from Band and Choir attended. They were June Frank, Sally Maxon, Dorothy Dippel, Carolyn Reed, and Louis Clayson.

Many Juniors were active in athletics. Reg Barr, Jack McAllister, Mert McGrew, Bob Spearman, Chuck Stone, and Ed Gwinn were some of the more prominent players in football. In basketball, Harlow Tucker, Jack McAllister, and Del Klicker were on the first five, with Tucker receiving a unanimous selection on the All State team and Klicker a selection on the second team. Many Juniors were also active in both baseball and track.

By all these activities and many more too numerous to mention, you can see the year 1951 has been an exceptionally busy one for the class of '52.

SOPHOMORES

This year's Sophomore Class, under the capable supervision of Miss Corn, has shown promise of what they will do in future years in both scholastic and athletic honors.

Heading the class the first semester were: president, Fred Santler; vice president, Sharon Davenport; and secretary, Nancy Brown. Second semester these duties were taken over by John Knowles as president; Robert Allen, vice-president; and Doris Jolstead, secretary. Working with them the first semester were Jack Brown as Boys' Federation representative; Doris Jolstead, Girls' Cabinet representative; and Carole Hall and Shirley Beck as Girls' Council representatives. Replacing them the second semester were LaRay Davidson, Jackie Struthers, Marilyn Yenny, and Shirley Hasselman, respectively.

In the vocal department, the Sophomore Class added many fine voices to the choir and comprised entirely the advanced Girls' glee, the Girls' triple trio, and the Sophomore boys' quartet.

The first quarter there were 47 Sophomores on the honor roll and at the semester this figure was raised to 61. There were several straight A students both times.

Athletically the Sophomores rated highly. Boys winning varsity letters in football were Dean Derby, Bob Cox, Don Hartwig, Clayton Young, and Marvin Dahl. Bob Cox was the only Sophomore to make the varsity basketball squad as was Rich Nowoj the only Sophomore to get a varsity letter in boxing. Many boys were on the B squad and did a fine job, whipping through the football season undefeated and losing only a few basketball games.

On student Court the first semester were Sharon Davenport and John Knowles. The second semester Carole Hall and Bob Johnson served on the lower court while Shirley Hasselman and Everett Beck served on the higher court.

Frances Blackman, Greg Cowan, and Carol Belle Webster had the honor of being the only Sophomores represented on club council. Shari Fain was chosen as the sophomore flag swinger.

Each year the Sophomore girls take charge of the Girls' Federation Get Acquainted party. This year it was in the hands of Shari Fain, general chairman, with Carol Hill, Merna Porter, Carol Neisess, Ellen Franzen, and Sharon Davenport serving under her.

These are by no means all the activities of the class of '53. Each sophomore participates in the affairs of the class and school, and they are all ready to fulfill their jobs as Juniors and upperclassmen next year.

F R O S H

Out of "Freshman Alley" has come a large amount of talent and leadership.

With John Anderson and Mrs. Gallivan as advisers, the class of '54 started off by electing Tom Leonard as president, Wally Burdette as vice-president, Carolyn Reynolds as secretary-treasurer, Darlene Reising as Girls' Cabinet representative; on Girls' Council were Carlene Frank and Pearl Livengood for first semester. Elected to Boys' Cabinet for first semester were Gilbert Maurer, Jerry Weaver, Gary Darling, Ken Trousdale, Robert Hartwell, Don Hall, and Frank Seebeck. Eddie Epstein and Suzanne Kent were appointed to Student Court. Class officers for the second semester were: president, Wally Burdette; secretary, Elsie Filan; treasurer, Bob Becker; Boys' Cabinet, Frank Seebeck; Girls' Cabinet was Myrna Moore and to Girls' Council Faye Rigsby and Sharon Allen were elected.

Along the lines of music there were two vocal groups being named, "The Freshmen Boys' Double Quartet" and "The Freshmen Girls' Ensemble." The boys in the quartet were Don Shafer, Scott Gruber, Dick Jansen, Bob Beach, John Beede, Maurice Blake, Dick Jones, and Daniel Clem. The girls appearing in the ensemble were Margie Riley, Chita Cousins, Carolyn Reynolds, Joyce Berney, Carlene Frank, Peggy Nessel, Luella Dudley, Phyllis Newlove, Pearl Livengood, Elsie Filan, Suzanne Kent, and Myrna Moore. These persons exhibited their talents on several occasions. Appearing in the operetta as policemen were Neil King, Russell Brown, Don Cline, Dick Jones, Maurice Blake, John Hamilton, John Beede, and Dick Jansen.

The freshmen boys had highly successful seasons in sports. With coaches Dave Nelson and "Chuck" McBride in football and Dave Nelson coaching basketball, many wins were accomplished. Football captains were Kenneth Lemke, Roland Hussey, and David Casper. Basketball captains were Jimmy Jepp, Terry Tucker, and Bob Fouts.

The freshmen had fifty-two students on the honor roll at the end of the first semester and six students having straight "A's," these students being Carlene Frank, Carolyn Reynolds, Marian Ulrich, Eddie Epstein, and Richard Mobley.

ROYAL

It happened again. Yes, school opened on September 3, 1950, to admit the horde of young people into its portals. The annual staff resumed its duties, as it has for the past thirty-five years, to prepare a year book. Beverly Reynolds was the new editor, with Ruthie McLean as her associate editor. The business part of the staff was handled by Marie Tyrrell, with Patty Munsey head of sales. Nancygayl Welch was picture editor and also worked on the art staff with the help of Wanda Moss. Photography staff was headed by Ray Seitz who was assisted by Orrin Anderson, Norman Rutzen, Bill Patterson, Pete Welk, Danny Clem and Army Barer. The people working on Make Up were Harriet Rader, Mary Evelyn Dean and Barbara Weathers. Members of the Copy Staff were Chet Young, Frances Blackman, Anne Jeglin, Shirley Eddy, Ellen Franzen, Joan Ferguson, Delores Beck, Carol Neisess, and Marilyn Golden.

Many thanks go to Miss Gray, adviser of the Royal Blue, who gave much of her time in helping the staff produce the Royal Blue.

BLUE

Nine hundred and twenty copies of the Royal Blue were sold, but money was still needed to fill out the budget. Finances were replenished by selling mums at Homecoming and conducting a paper drive with the help of the various clubs in Wa-Hi. Hi-Y won first place, having collected four tons.

Among other activities of the Royal Blue, besides editing the year book, was giving the annual Royal Blue Ball, the theme of which was "Dancing Through the Snow" with Dixie Allison as reigning queen.

A supplement to the annual was the new feature this year. It contains activities of the latter part of the year that are usually too late to appear in the annual.

The annual staff is now looking forward to the coming picnic that represents the end of the year's work of producing the annual.

The office of the Wa-Hi Daily Journal located in room 301½ was a scene of prevailing disaster as the 1950-51 school year began. Except for one courageous male, Hayward Tucker, the first semester Journal staff was composed entirely of girls under Miss Florence McGovern's supervision.

Joanie Sherwood and Suzanne Skubinna as acting co-editors, chose their staff for the ninth year of publication and the twenty-fifth year of continuous production. Those appointed for the first semester staff were Joan Strange as News Editor, Ann Duckworth as Feature Editor, Gretchen Vollendorff as Business Manager, and the unheard of position as Girl Sports Editor went to Janet Franklin. Where there are editors there are associate editors, but as most of them put it, the "underdogs." Helping Joan Strange with news and the front page was Mary Bergevin, Associate News Editor, and problems of the feature or back page that Ann Duckworth had to stew about were shared with Anne Jeglin, Associate Feature Editor. Gretchen Vollendorff had the assistance of Margaret Buerstatte, Associate Business Manager, and many times they could be found up to their necks in scotch tape, stamps, and a week's accumulation of Journals, madly trying to get the exchanges ready for the mail. Janet Franklin didn't have an assistant but Buzz Sanderson as active Sports Writer kept Janet from sitting on the bench throughout the football and basketball season. Janet had her days though, and it was no easy job seeing that those sports stories got in on time.

Reporters for this semester were Bea Hill, Donna Young, Eva Harris, Jeannette Jaussaud, and Hayward Tucker.

Journal

The second semester brought lots of changes and the "hole in the wall" underwent a thorough spring cleaning. Editorships went to Janet Franklin and Anne Jeglin. Because of the tremendous abundance of reporters coming from Miss McGovern's journalism class several new positions were created. Joan Strange still ruled the news page but this time Sally Maxon was helping. Features were turned over to Mary Bergevin, with Jeanette Jaussaud's assistance. Buzz Sanderson took over Sports Editor, with help from Gene Wike, and Reginald Green acting as contributing Sports Editors. Bea Hill brought in news from the women's athletic field as Girls Sports Editor, and Gretchen Vollen-dorff was still struggling with scotch tape and circulating business as Business Manager, Donna Young assisting. Joanie Sherwood and Ann Duckworth had the luxury of being contributing editors and turned in many fine articles when the going got rough.

Reporters for the second semester were divided into two groups, news and feature. Those on news were Helen Anderson, Ruth Boi-court, Phyllis Demory, Todd Forest, Jane Querna, Linda Stebbins, Bar-bara Weathers, Elaine Bergevin, Bill Currie, Marvin Graff, and Kath-leen Wiley. On the features were Eva Harris, Harriet Pierce, John Pratt, Zoe Zachary, Margaret Brennan, Janice McCowan, John Miller, Marilyn Yenney, and Gail Zachary.

Washington's Birthday found Janet Franklin, Buzz Sanderson, Joanie Sherwood, Mary Bergevin, Gail Zachary, Janice McCowan, Joan Strange, and Miss McGovern enroute to Seattle for the PSSP confer-ence February 23 and 24. They came back a little the worse for wear, with many new journalistic ideas and an endless repertoire of travel tales and experiences.

The Wa-Hi Daily Journal is a member of the National Scholastic Press Association and the Pacific Slope School Press, and has received First Class honor rating every year but one when it took the all high rating of All American.

Without the help of Mrs. McDonald and the mimeographing de-partment the Wa-Hi Daily Journal would never have had as successful a year as they did during the 1950-51 school year.

Advanced Speech

The Advanced Speech Class has really been kept busy this year with three radio shows to be produced each week. They also produced several special shows at the request of the local radio stations. Each sports feature was supplied with a member of the class as announcer.

The class was well organized so that the students did all of the program planning themselves. The program and personnel managers scheduled all shows and arranged for program personnel. The class was divided into committees so that everyone would be able to work on shows of whichever type he preferred.

The first weekly program, a half hour broadcast, was presented on Tuesday afternoon at 5:00, when "The Wa-Hi Grab Bag Is on the Air" could be heard at a turn of the dial to KWVB. The contents of the Grab Bag were different each week. Discussion programs headed the list. Here the students discussed important issues of the day, with possibly an outside speaker who was well informed on the issue concerned. Once a month a Music show was produced. The type of music used was varied on each program. Opus Original was made up of creative writing featuring original stories and poems by the English students. For one show, the Special Events people visited the Pioneer Junior High School, where they recorded interviews with the principal, several teachers, and a few of the students. They also described the school and gave the listening audience a vivid picture of the buildings. The last type of entertainment to be pulled from the Grab Bag were the Dramatic productions. Among some of the stories that they dramatized were "Tom Sawyer," "Bongo," a children's story, a comedy entitled "Dotty and Daffy," and a serious story, "The Valiant."

The second show, a fifteen minute program on KUJ, Thursday evenings, was the traditional Wa-Hilites. This program had a definite pattern each week. It consisted of the latest news around school, sports commentary, and a feature. The features were either pertinent interviews, on the spot recordings of sports or student opinion polls, or short dramatic productions.

The last regular weekly production was the Farm Show, which was made up of interviews from the Ag class and FFA. This was presented each Saturday over the Farm News.

The National Honor Society at the first of this year was composed of the thirteen seniors who had been tapped in their junior year. This small group was under the guidance of Gene LePage, president, and Mr. Stoehr, adviser.

The fall tapping assembly was held in November when fourteen seniors were chosen as members of the Walla Walla High School chapter. At this time the entire student body witnessed the initiation as it was given right on the stage. Very rarely is this done, so that all were honored by it.

The second semester new officers were elected, headed by Helen McAuslan, president. Before long everyone was busy planning an entirely new program for the March tapping assembly. The plans were finally completed and carried through.

For the first time in the history of the chapter, the old members wore caps and gowns and marched to the accompaniment of a lively march down the center aisles and up onto the stage. The unveiling of the new electrified emblem, the work of Mr. Stoehr, also was an added feature. It was at this time that twelve more seniors and thirteen juniors were honored as new members.

Another day in March ten seniors took the National Honor Society Scholarship Test. The number elected to take the test was based on the number of seniors planning to attend college.

The final arrangements for the initiation of the last students chosen have not been completed, but they will include a dinner for all the members, their parents, and the faculty.

Band

The past year has seen a bigger and better Senior Band, under the direction of Mr. Russell Larsen, participating in many activities. They played for pep assemblies, all home football games, and also accompanied the football team to Everett and put on a half-time show despite the muddy field. The Band has also marched in parades and reviews. A pep band was organized to provide music at basketball games and they also accompanied the basketball team to Seattle for the state tournament. The annual winter concert was presented on March 8.

Officers in the Band include Harry Ames, student conductor; Homer Milbrath, assistant student conductor; Ruth Dippel, band manager; Carolyn Reed, librarian; Karl Schwarz, president; and Lola Riley, secretary.

Three members of the Senior Band had the honor of participating in the Northwest Music Educators Conference held in Missoula, Montana, the last week in March. These three were: Harry Ames, Carolyn Reed and Dorothy Dippel.

Choir

The vocal department under the direction of Miss Suzanne Elliot has had a very busy and successful season. The Christmas concert, which adequately combined the old favorites with some novelty numbers, had record attendance. The choir made several appearances at service clubs and sang at the parents' visitation day. They were also invited to sing at an assembly at Walla Walla College.

For the first time in many years the vocal department gave an operetta. The one chosen was the "Pirates of Penzance," a Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedy. Leads were taken by Dixie Allison, June Frank, Sally Maxon, Wanda Gibbs, June Cochran, John Cummings, Dean Lodmell, Louis Clayson, Louis Roedel, and Russell Hyslop.

This was the year of the biennial Northwest Music Conference. Wa-Hi was well represented with eleven choir members attending. They were: Emma Jean Barrett, Sally Maxon, June Frank, Justine Sires, Dixie Allison, John Cummings, Louis Clayson, Curtis Lange, Dean Lodmell, Bob Gordon, and Russell Hyslop.

The fact that the Freshman Boys' Glee Club, Freshman Girls' Glee Club, Advanced Girls' Club, Choir, and numerous small ensembles made 90 appearances proves that the vocal department enjoyed a busy season.

Each year a number of small groups are selected from the various larger ones. These ensembles never fail to be enjoyed by the organizations for which they sing.

Although this was Miss Elliott's first year at Wa-Hi, there is no doubt in anyone's mind as to her ability as a musician and director. Comments of all the performances that Miss Elliott has directed has been most favorable.

R. O. T. C.

The cadet corps of the ROTC unit at Walla Walla High School is composed of students enrolled in beginning, second-year, and advanced ROTC.

The cadet corps is organized as a regiment commanded by Cadet Lt. Col. Alfred Derby; with the 1st battalion commanded by Cadet Major Wayne Heimbigner. Company A commanded by Cadet Captain Rex Gwinn and Company B commanded by Cadet Captain Leroy Deranleau, comprise the first battalion. The second battalion is commanded by Cadet Major Milton Sefren and includes Company C commanded by Cadet Captain Carroll Ader and Company D commanded by Cadet Captain Eudell Hankla.

Under jurisdiction of the military department were the Boys' Rifle Team, which placed sixth in the Sixth Army JR ROTC marksmanship competition this year and has been selected to compete in the National ROTC competition, and the Boys' Drill Team commanded by Cadet Captain Arden Forrey, Jr., which performs special infantry drill at school events.

The Girls' Sponsor Corps, commanded by Sponsor Captain Justine Sires, is an auxiliary of the cadet corps and is a service group for school affairs.

Captain Benjamin B. Flathers is the PMS&T and instructs advanced military classes. SFC Donald J. Stacke instructs the beginning military course and SFC Alfred J. Fulton the second year course and the rifle team. SFC Ronald M. Fleshman is the administrative and supply sergeant.

AWARDING THE STATE CHAPTER PLAQUE
 O'Bert (State F.F.A. Pres.) and Mr. Safford

F. F. A.

The Walla Walla chapter started the year off by receiving the Master Chapter Award for being among the top chapters in the state. Then came the awarding of a plaque to the chapter for being the best in our district. Following this came the awarding of a "Gold Emblem" certificate for being one of the top two chapters of the state. To top off all the previous awards, the chapter was awarded the plaque for the best in the state.

This enabled the Walla Walla chapter to enter the National Chapter Contest where the chapter ranked among the top fifty in the nation. Receiving this award for the chapter were three boys from Walla Walla who attended the National Convention held in Kansas City, Missouri. The boys were John Nordheim, Dave Haun, and Arnold Knopf. Nordheim and Knopf were representatives of the state association and Haun was representative of the chapter.

Forty members exhibited livestock, poultry, and crops at the Southeastern Washington Fair. Many honors were won by the chapter members who exhibited at the Spokane Junior Livestock Show.

Besides farming activities, members of the chapter have the opportunity to participate in leadership—training such as public speaking, and parliamentary procedure. Jerry Still was one of the state winners in public speaking. Basketball games were played with neighboring chapters to give members recreation during winter months..

Again this year, the Walla Walla chapter sponsored its annual F.F.A. Barn Dance with a large crowd in attendance. Darlene Mumford was named F.F.A. Queen and Sweetheart for the year at that event.

Each week during the year the chapter has had its own radio program. Several members appeared before civic groups and put on programs for them. During National F. F. A. Week the chapter made an all out effort to make the community aware of Future Farmer work. The Walla Walla chapter was well represented at the state convention held in Pullman.

Joe King, second national vice-president of F. F. A., was a visitor of the chapter and was very impressed with the work being done by the chapter. Dan McGreevy, F. F. A. state vice-president, was a speaker at the annual Parent-and-Son banquet. Visitors from other nations also put in an appearance: Salahatten Iran of Turkey, and Peter Blyth of England.

The chapter operates a grass cooperative for the production of certified grass seed. Since much machinery is needed, a machinery cooperative is operated by the chapter. The chapter also has a flock of Hampshire sheep, a herd of Hampshire swine, and registered Hereford beef cattle.

The chapter has had a busy year; all of the members were kept busy during the year fulfilling their pledge, which is:

To practice brotherhood,
To honor rural opportunities and responsibilities,
And to develop those qualities of leadership which a Future Farmer should possess.

AWARD ASSEMBLY

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

Assemblies

When a freshman or a transfer enters Wa-Hi, it doesn't take him long to learn how assemblies fit into the scheme of things.

Reading the Daily Journal, we always look first to find the assemblies scheduled during the week. If none are forthcoming, we are all immensely disappointed.

Wa-Hi's assemblies provide a welcome break in the everyday class routine. They furnish an outlet for the generous supply of talent which crops up every year, in both the student body and faculty.

Let's delve a little further into this highly interesting subject. Generally speaking, there are five types of assemblies: pep, national, service club, Boys' and Girls' Federation, and exchange.

This means that a large number of people must be responsible for the preparation; the yell squad, service clubs, and the Federations, to mention a few. With such a variety of people, there are programs of all types, to suit all tastes.

We send and receive exchange assemblies, which are arranged by the commissioner of inter-school relations. These go a long way towards promoting better understanding between schools.

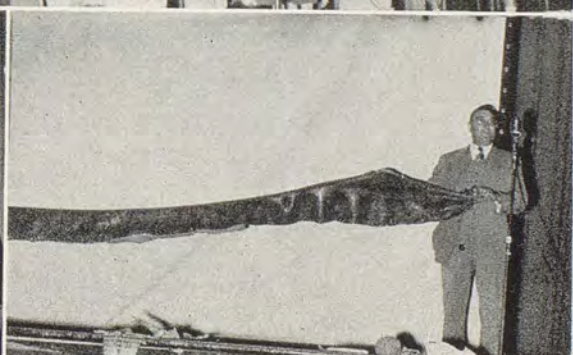

These assemblies are presented not only to entertain, but to teach good citizenship; and above all, courtesy and consideration.

Occasionally, when some serious school problem comes up, it is necessary for the principal to call a general assembly. A sensible talk, straight from the shoulder, always seems to clear things. There again, our assemblies have served.

A student may not always be interested in the program taking place, but he can always sit quietly while those interested can listen. We want visiting speakers and entertainers to go away with a favorable impression of our school.

Yes, these assemblies are more than meets the eye. When thoughtfully and carefully prepared, they are a pleasant interlude for all—from the time the student body president opens them until we all repeat the flag salute and pass back to our classes.

"Mother Is a Freshman"

SENIOR PLAY

"Mother Is a Freshman," by Raphael David Blau, was presented November 17 and 18 by the Senior Class. Marshall Alexander directed the cast which included:

ZOE ZACHARY .....	Abigail Abbott
RICHARD DOWNING .....	Professor Michaels
JO ANN BUCK .....	Susan Abbott
MARY DAVIS .....	Mrs. Miller
JOAN STRANGE .....	Clara Fettle
JUNE COCHRAN .....	Helen
JOANIE SHERWOOD .....	Bunny
BARBARA LONG .....	Sylvia
PEG HUNTER .....	Marge
JOYCE BARKER .....	Carrie
DOUG TAYLOR .....	Bobo
ELMER KRALMAN .....	Dean Gillingham
PETE WELK .....	Jack
ROBERT ALEXIE .....	Howie
RUSSELL HYSLOP .....	Bill

The plot centered around Abigail Abbott, the young-looking mother of Susan Abbott, a sophomore at Pointer College. Abigail accepted a "very generous" scholarship for which she was eligible. The events which followed made a very humorous production. Young Susan imagines herself in love with Professor Michaels, but mother gets him. Everyone is happy as the curtain falls.

Stage Manager Danny Sutherland and the stage crew worked hours on the set. Properties took the time of Sonia Angell, Harriet Duckworth, and Jane Querna, Shirley Dorn and Barbara Ellis were prompters.

In addition to the direction of Mr. Alexander, David Bevers, Whitman College junior, assisted with direction and set construction.

Previous to performances at the school, the cast took "Mother Is a Freshman" to the Blue Mountain Sanatorium for one evening. The patients were a very appreciative group of sneak previewers.

After the final play performance the cast adjourned to the Shuffle Shop for a successful cast party.

"The Pirates of Penzance" was presented by the Walla Walla High School vocal and dramatics department on April 19 and 20. This operetta was under the direction of Miss Suzanne Elliott, director of the Vocal Department, and Marshall Alexander, director of the Drama Department. The most touching scenes were those with Frederic and Mabel, Frederic and Ruth, and when the Pirates and Maidens sang "Hail Poetry." The comedy was brought out by the police force with their comical sergeant who was played by Russell Hyslop. This operetta was something new for Wa-Hi and it took the place of the All School Play.

The student body and the rest of the community were very much impressed with the color and staging of this outstanding production.

At last it's over!

F. H. A.

Under the advisory of Miss Steenberg and Mrs. Dragich, Home Ec teachers, the Walla Walla chapter of Future Homemakers of America began their second year of organization by promoting F.H.A. in order to interest prospective girls for membership. To end the drive, an initiation by candlelight for the new members was held at the home of LaRae Toman, the chapter's vice-president.

Attending the district F.H.A. meeting at Clarkston in the fall were Mrs. Dragich, Ann Matson, and Georgia Burgess who brought back many suggestions gathered from other F.H.A. members from the chapters in eastern Washington.

Principal projects for the year were: Preparing a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family; making eighty satin stoles for the choir; and sponsoring and presenting the annual Spring Style Review with all the members of the sewing classes taking part. A year-round project was carried on by preparing and serving refreshments at the monthly faculty meetings. Other activities carried on by the girls were: Serving refreshments to visitors at the high school open house in the fall; arranging a display in the high school show window during F.H.A. week; sponsoring a cake sale, and selling greeting cards to raise money.

For recreation during the year they held a Christmas party, attended the annual Wa-Hi-Mac-Hi F.F.A. and F.H.A. skating party during F.F.A. week in February, and in the spring the girls went on a picnic to round out the year of good times.

Helping Georgia Burgess, chapter president, were vice-president LaRae Toman, secretary Jeanne Huffman, treasurer Delores Dicus, reporter Margaret Buerstatte. Committee heads were: Publicity, Margaret Buerstatte; Song Leader, Marilyn DeBoer; Entertainment, LaRae Toman, and Project, Dorothy Jamison and Agnes Iori.

Royal Blue Ball

"Dancing Thru the Snow" was the theme of the 1950 Royal Blue Ball. Dixie Allison introduced as "The Redhead," reigned over the Ball with Carol Zier and Zoe Zachary as the princesses of her court. Mr. Klavano did honors by crowning Dixie with the Royal Blue wreath of white carnations and by presenting corsages to each of the princesses. The queen's black net gown, blending with the snow trimmed black throne, made a pretty effect. The girls were escorted by Eddie Aliverti, Dale Steindorf, and Bill Lloyd, respectively.

A lacy white false ceiling and Christmas trees added seasonal atmosphere to the dance. Sparkling letters of dance phrases adorning the walls helped to carry out the theme. The romantic setting and snow in the air provided an enjoyable experience for the couples at the Royal Blue Ball.

Homecoming

The annual Homecoming celebrations were held on October 20th and 21st. On the 20th, the day began with a spectacular parade of beautiful and comical floats, most of them having the theme of the Clarkston Bantams and Wa-Hi Blue Devils. These floats were entered by many of the Wa-Hi service clubs. The winner of this parade was Grenno Se Cee.

The highlight of Homecoming was the final home football game of the year between the Clarkston Bantams and the Wa-Hi Blue Devils. During half-time the king and queen of Homecoming, Homer Milbrath and Delora Tomlinson, were crowned. Homer and Delora were chosen from couples of the senior class the preceding week. Queen Delora's lovely crown was made of small white chrysanthemums which came to a point in the center. Bringing the day to a perfect close, the Wa-Hi Blue Devils beat the Clarkston Bantams.

The following evening brought Homecoming to a climax with the semi-formal Homecoming Dance held in the Wa-Hi girls' gym. The theme of the dance was "Arabian Nights." The color of the decorations was red and white, with panels on either side of the gym portraying sand dunes, tents and other Arabian scenes. Queen Delora and King Homer reigned over the dance and were honored at intermission. After intermission the King and Queen danced alone to the song, "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody." Zane Casey's band offered lovely music for the evening.

F. F. A. Barn Dance

The Walla Walla Chapter of Future Farmers of America again sponsored its annual F.F.A. Barn Dance this year on November 17th. A Western atmosphere was provided; straw bales replaced the chairs; an old buggy was present; saddles, a turkey, a calf, and sheep were in the corners of the gym. A large crowd was in attendance and square dancing proved to be very popular.

During intermission the F.F.A. Queen and Sweetheart was crowned. The identity of the queen had been kept a secret until the coronation festivities. At that time Darlene Mumford was named queen and was presented with a crown that was a gold floral creation with "F.F.A." in blue. Queen Darlene's reign continues throughout the year for she will be a special guest of the chapter and honored at various F.F.A. functions.

Queen Darlene drew numbers for the awarding of door prizes to several lucky couples.

Shuffle Shop

As the school year draws to a close, we look back and find the Shuffle Shop the scene of many student activities.

Two successful parties were planned by the commissioner under the guidance of Mrs. Priscilla Hearst and Mrs. Walker. These were New Year's and the Hobo Dance.

At the close of the school year of '50 the student body president appointed Marian Fry as Commissioner of Shuffle Shop, and Marian, in turn, appointed her assistants. They were Kenny Darr, senior; Jim Kerr, junior; Sue Borum, sophomore; and Marlene Fagg, freshman. Together they took care of finances, ticket sales, snack bar, publicity, and the keeping of supplies.

The various school clubs took charge of the Shuffle Shop for a week at a time. During this time they decorated, cleaned, and even planned entertainment.

Yes, with the school year coming to a close, the Shuffle Shop has served its purpose as a meeting place and social center for the Wa-Hi student body.

Varsity Football

PASCO

The 1950 football season of the Wa-Hi Blue Devils got off to a roaring start when they whipped the Pasco Bulldogs 54-6. For so early in the season the Devils played a fine game with outstanding passing, running, and blocking. Two sophomores, Clayton Young and Bob Cox, brought the stands to their feet because of their fine playing.

WENATCHEE

The first away-from-home game for the Devils was played at the Apple Bowl against the Wenatchee Panthers. The Panthers suffered a terrible defeat at the hands of the Devils. When the final gun sounded the score was 31-6. Wayne Heimbigner and Gene LePage accounted for three of the touchdowns. Cox and Young scored the rest.

YAKIMA

The Yakima Pirates handed the Devils their first defeat of the season on the Yakima field. The final score was 26-20. A very rough ball game it was, and half a dozen Wa-Hi men were injured. Zeke West, fullback, was outstanding in the game.

MAC-HI

The greatest upset of the season came when the underdog Mac-Hi Pioneers punted a 20-16 victory over on the Blue Devils. Junior back, Mert McGrew, zipped 80 yards for the first touchdown in the first 30 seconds of play. However the excellent passing of Pioneer QB Jerry Crimmins sparked Mac-Hi on to the win.

RICHLAND

The Richland eleven was overwhelmed by a strong Walla Walla Blue Devil team. Led by the sharp passing of QB Gene LePage and the brilliant receiving of star ends Hammond and Heimbigner, the fine running on the part of the Wa-Hi backs led to the downfall of the opponents. The final score was 21-7.

CLARKSTON

A huge crowd saw the Walla Walla Blue Devils stack up a Homecoming win over the Clarkston Bantams with a score of 44-6. Bob Hammond was high man with two TD's. West, Jacky, Derby, Gwinn, and Davis each tallied one.

PENDLETON

The seventh game of the season was played on a wind swept Pendleton field with the Buckeroos. Once again the Devils fought their way to victory, this time by a 13-6 score. Zeke West and big Don Klien played outstanding ball as did Merle Goble, Rex Gwinn, and John Clark.

EVERETT

After a windy game at Pendleton the Devils traveled to Everett to play a wet one with the Seagulls. Luck ran out for the Devils as the Seagulls pulled ahead in the first half by the tenable margin of 19-0. However, in the second half the Devils fought back and managed to put over two TD's. The final score was 26-12. Sophomore Dean Derby played a tiptop game.

LEWISTON

The final game of the 1950 season was played with the Bengals of Lewiston, Idaho. Ending the season with a .677 average, the Devils tripped up the Bengals, 13-0. Halfback Bob Spearman played his best of the year. Other long gains were made through passes of LePage and Cox and runs by West, Derby and Young and receivers Hammond and Heimbigner.

Each year the football team elects the two players which they believe did the most for the team. One honor is the Honorary Captain and the other is Most Inspirational Player. Laurels for 1951 went to Bob Hammond and Don Klien, respectively. These boys really earned these honors by their fine ball playing.

BASKETBALL - - Wa-Hi Gets Third in State

With only one returning starter, Mr. Wooten built the 1950-51 Blue Devils into one of the best teams Wa-Hi has ever had. Their brilliant team work and expert play confounded those who said that this was to be a poor year.

The Blue Devils lost only two regular season games. After a 52-50 loss to Lewis and Clark the Devils rolled to 12 straight victories, topping 70 points four times before losing to Clarkston 49-56 with Harlow Tucker on the sick list. The high point of the regular season was the 64-62 upset of the undefeated Idaho Frosh. Finishing the regular season with an 18-2 record the Devils shot through four straight sub district and district wins to earn a berth at the State Tournament.

There Wa-Hi beat Burlington and edged the defending champion South Kitsap Wolves to meet Highline in the semi-finals.

Highline took a heart-breaking 50-48 victory in double overtime after Wa-Hi had led almost all the way and Highline went on to beat Yakima for the championship.

The next night the Devils rallied from a third quarter deficit to beat Seattle Prep 47-40 and take third place.

The 1950-51 Blue Devils were very good, but even more impressive than the individual stars was the team play.

Harlow Tucker, 6'4" junior center, led all scorers with 356 points and was the only unanimous selection to the All-State first team at the State Tournament. His rebounding, shooting, and floor play were exceptional throughout the season.

Captain Wayne Heimbigner scored 285 points and was an outstanding forward for the Blue Devils.

Little 5'6" junior guard Del Klicker was a sparkling playmaker, who in addition was third in scoring with 250 points. At Seattle Del was a second string All-State choice.

Jack McAllister was an extremely fine forward who teamed well with Harlow in rebounding for the Devils. His accurate shooting was especially fine during State Tournament.

Bill Davis, a senior, and sophomore Bob Cox, alternated at teaming with Del Klicker at guard. Both are fine playmakers and shots. Bill's great night came when he led the Devils to the victory over South Kitsap at State.

Rex Gwinn was a dependable senior reserve who spelled Harlow Tucker while John Cummings was a fine forward.

Bob Spearman, Mert McGrew, Jim Oury, and Denny Michaelson, junior reserves, round out the Devil second string which played a great deal of very good ball during the year.

With four starters and four reserves back next year, Wa-Hi gives promise of a team which can keep the 11 game home court win streak going.

Coach Chuck McBride's boxing team came through with a first place in the district tournament, while also collecting five individual championships. The honors were given to Freshman Ken Trousdale at 99 lbs., Juniors Larry Delaney at 115 lbs., Steve Roeser at 140 lbs., Dick Turner at 199 lbs., and Senior Zeke West at 155 lbs. Other boys that contributed points to the Wa-Hi cause at the tournament but didn't win championships were Frosh Forest Day and Billy Field, Sophomores Don McDermott and Rich Nowoj, Juniors Albert Best, Chuck Stone, and Dick Oelke, and Senior Paul Gleaton. Other boxers that were also included in the squad were Steve Oury and Frank Seebach, frosh, Jack Beyer, sophomore, and Jim Page, senior.

Senior Bruce McKay was elected team captain by his fellow mittmen and was awarded the Junior Chamber captain trophy. McKay suffered a broken finger during the last part of the season and was unable to fight in district.

Schools meeting the Blue Devil boxers were Prosser, Pomeroy, Anatone, Colfax, Clarkston, Dayton, Marquette (Yakima), Mead (Spokane), and Asotin.

The senior manager was Merle Goble; Junior, Claude Huffman; Sophomore, John Miller, and Frosh, Bob Sanderson.

YELL SQUAD

During this atomic era of turn over and change, the 1950-51 yell squad was also changed. As you will remember, the old yell squad was made up of four members, two juniors and two seniors. The seniors were to be automatically the king and queen while the juniors were to be held over for the next year, making it a two year term.

This year there were two members added making it a total of six. They abolished the holding over of the juniors, and old members as well as new must be voted on by the student body. Freshmen may also try out. The change followed an amendment to the constitution providing for two yell squads instead of one. Three boys were to make up the first group, three girls the other.

The two groups perform both separately and together. Changing the style of the girls' dress, was the addition of blue and white pleated skirts. The boys' attire was much the same as last year, blue sweaters and white cords.

A new addition this year was the introduction of Devil's Day, on which everyone was asked to wear blue and white.

One big affair of the year was Homecoming. Among the projects of the squad was the organization of the parade, judges for the floats, the burning of the big "W" at Borleske Stadium, and making the alumni welcome.

As stated by one of the squad, "The Idaho Frosh game was a yell leader's dream from which the gym is still echoing." School spirit has been exceptionally good all year but the Frosh game raised the rafters.

The Highline game at State saw the shining faces of the whole squad plus the faces of a good portion of the student body. They used many yells that were new this year, including syncopated Devils, Devil's Fire, and new variations on the old yells. Our yell squad showed the school what a good yell squad could do.

Girls' Sports

Girls' sports provide a great deal of enjoyment for those who participate. These girls play an active part in girls' sports and have won the following awards: state letters—Marilyn DeBoer, Lilly Huntly, seniors; and Dorothy Dippel, junior; school letters—Janice Van Horn, Beatrice Hill, juniors; Marilyn Yenney, sophomore. Numerals were received by Frances Kajita, Margaret Tomlinson, Janet Shemwell, Margaret Brennan, juniors; Bonnie Hill, Geneva Nixon, Mary Kirkpatrick, Betty Bradley, Merna Porter, and Jackie Struthers, sophomores.

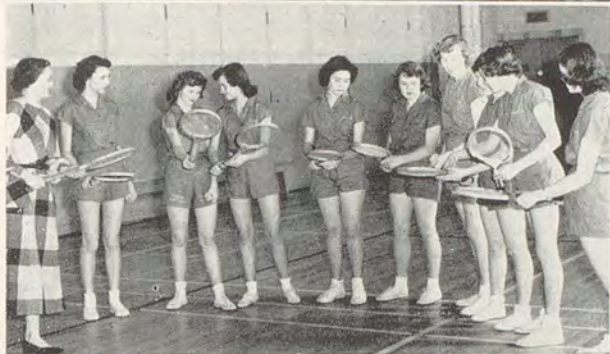

G.A.A. showed the friendliness of Wa-Hi in a volleyball play day. The following schools were invited: Mac-Hi, Dayton, Prescott, St. Paul's, and Waitsburg. St. Paul's also had a basketball play day and invited Wa-Hi. G.A.A. had a bicycle hike in April.

This year fifty girls turned out for tennis. The tennis team played Pendleton and Hermiston. Other individual sports are ping pong, won by Mary Lynn Davin and the badminton winner being Betty Baldwin.

In the team sports, speed ball, under the management of Bonnie Hill, was won by the juniors and seniors, and volleyball, managed by Merna Porter, was won by homerooms 117 and 204. First place was taken by homerooms 117, 304, and 316 in the basketball tournament, managed by Beatrice Hill. The turnout for softball showed that many girls were interested in forming a team.

Tumbling had a good year this year. They tumbled at the intermission of one basketball game and they made a very good impression at the annual P. E. demonstration.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y had a very exciting and prosperous year. Their greatest gain was the start of a new club, the F. D. Applegate Hi-Y, with Russel McCormack elected president. This is the start of perhaps more boys being able to participate in Hi-Y. The president of the Walla Walla Hi-Y was Merle Goble.

During the fall the club sold programs at the football games. To raise money for the annual, the annual staff put on a paper drive, which the club won. This entitled the club to a page in the annual.

Each club put on a frolic during the year to raise money for the clubs. On Good Friday before Easter, Hi-Y gave the Easter assembly, with Reverend Klein as guest speaker.

The climax of the clubs' activities during the year was the presenting of the Hi-Y Varsity Ball which was held April 3 in the girls' gym. The clubs voted for a senior queen, and junior, sophomore, and freshman princesses. These were: Marian Wiltse, queen; Ruthie McLean, Barbara Becker and Marlene Fagg, princesses.

On May 6, to close out the clubs' year was the annual Hi-Y picnic with both clubs participating.

Throughout the year, Hi-Y's activities were numerous and all its members greatly enjoyed them.

Royal Blue Staff

This is "our" book and yours. Remember the first day we ever worked on it, the fun that we had selecting our covers, all the work trying to raise money for a bigger and better annual. We wish all of you could have enjoyed the fun and work we, as the staff, have had in putting this book together.

Sincere thanks go to Artcraft Company of Seattle for their excellent job of engraving. They have been most considerate and helpful in the planning of our annual. We want especially to thank the Union-Bulletin for the outstanding printing job and all the special favors they have done for us.

Our gratitude goes to the many students with no official title who helped with this year's book. For the excellent work done on the covers, we express our appreciation to S. K. Smith Company, and for the individual senior pictures we sincerely thank Bontrop Studio, DeBunce Studio, Miller's Studio, Roberge Studio, and Vitart Studio.

To us, this book has been work, worry, and a little disappointment at times, but if you like it, then all our efforts have not been in vain because this book is for you.

Sincerely,

ROYAL BLUE STAFF
